

Department of Pesticide Regulation

Mary-Ann Warmerdam
Director

Arnold Schwarzenegger
Governor

August 10, 2006

TO: Agricultural Pest Control Advisers, Pest Control Dealer Designated Agents, Qualified Applicator Licensees, Qualified Applicator Certificate Holders, and Pest Control Aircraft Pilots

SUBJECT: LICENSE AND CERTIFICATE RENEWAL REMINDER

Your Department of Pesticide Regulation license and/or certificate will expire on December 31, 2006, and we will be mailing your renewal packet in early September. The following items are enclosed to give you a head start in compiling the documents and determining the appropriate fees to renew your license or certificate this year.

- Bookmark with dates to remember—gives timelines and items required to comply with the renewal of your license and/or certificate.
- “What you Need to Know About Renewing Your License or Certificate” (Q & As)—answers some of the most common questions about the renewal process and requirements. The Q&As are also available on our website at <www.cdpr.ca.gov>. Click the Licensing & Certification tab and you will find it under “Publications and Outreach Materials”.

License & Certificate Fees

License or Certificate Type	2-Year Fee	Late Fee
Agricultural Pest Control Adviser License	$140	$70
Pest Control Aircraft Pilot Certificate	$90	$45
Pest Control Dealer Designated Agent License	$50	$25
Qualified Applicator License	$120	$60
Qualified Applicator Certificate	$60	$30

Renewal fees are listed by license and certificate type. A late fee will be added to the 2-year fee of each license and/or certificate that you are renewing if postmarked after December 31, 2006.

August 10, 2006

Page 2

For additional information, see DPR's web site at <www.cdpr.ca.gov/docs/license/lictypes.htm>, or call the Licensing & Certification program at (916) 445-4038.

Sincerely,

Original signed by

Mac Takeda
Agriculture Program Supervisor
Licensing and Certification Program

Enclosures